Dear Robert,

I would like to thank you, Gisele, and the team at Legacy Transformational Consulting Inc. for the work that you have done with Onevest Corporation.

When we started our consulting sessions with your firm back in October of 2014 we were a company that was coming out of an M&A transaction between RockThePost Corporation and CoFoundersLab Inc. At that point when we met, we were a group of individuals that were acting as a group instead of operating under the framework of being a team. In addition we had almost one month of cash left in the bank and we had very little in sales. Without a doubt, the morale was low and the direction was not there.

During the 8 days that we spent together, at our offices in New York, we were able to get complete with the past from both companies and to build a strategic future as one single company. We got very clear as to what we needed and where we wanted to be by 2020. The promise we made was to revolutionize venture investing and to create unimaginable wealth for our shareholders and investors.

After we started having our sessions there was a complete shift in the organization. We reorganized our structure to become sales driven and 3 out of the 5 initial leadership team members remained with the company. Truth to be told, we finished the year by growing our sales by 179% and with $1M raised in one month and a half alone to sustain the operations.

Our company is now committed to being trusted by all by having a profound integrity from the way we conduct ourselves and to how that is projected to people outside of the organization. We are also embracing the principles of responsibility, accountability, trust, and integrity.

Overall, Legacy had a huge impact in the operations of Onevest. We couldn't be more grateful for your contribution.

With my best wishes,
